MACH-Track is a structured, mentored and fully funded career development pathway for exceptional research-minded health practitioners pursuing post-registration clinical training or career development in any of 10 health services affiliated to MACH.

The Track seeks to develop the future leaders of clinical innovation by offering an opportunity to integrate completion of advanced clinical training of the highest standard with pre-PhD, PhD and post-PhD training in research associated with the University of Melbourne Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences and eight affiliated Medical Research Institutes.

Bespoke and tailored towards the research direction of each successful candidate, MACH-Track is flexibly designed to accommodate:

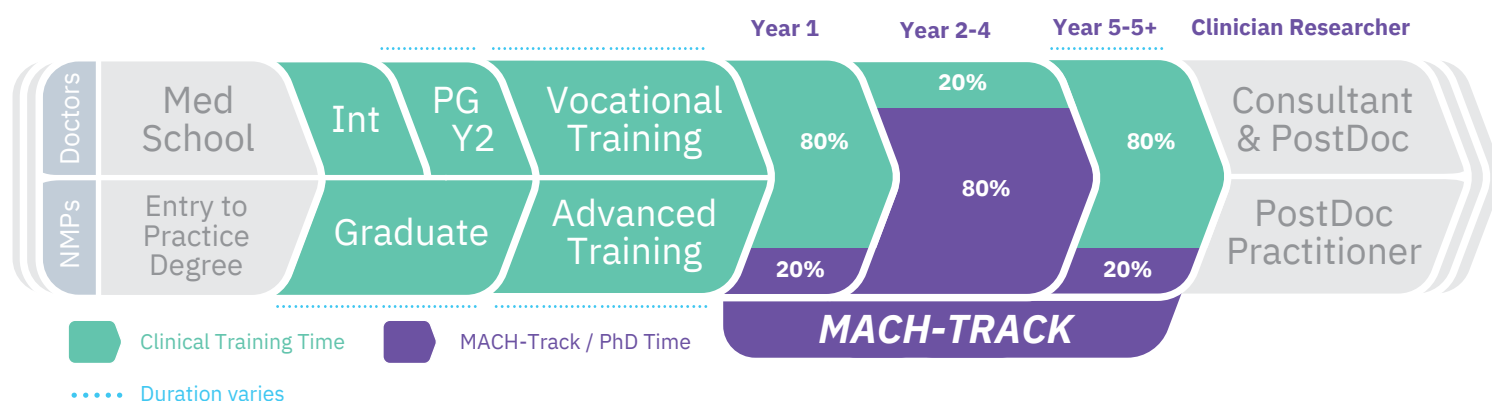

- 1) Doctors in vocational training in any hospital specialty, general practice or public health;
- 2) Nurses and Midwives at Masters level, and working towards or at an advanced level of practice; and
- 3) Physiotherapists working towards advanced practice
